

EVERARD FINDLAY

GLOBAL SYSTEMS
STRATEGIST

ABOUT

Everard Findlay is a global systems strategist with over two decades of experience working with heads of state, leaders and innovators including countries, cities, regions, Ivy League institutions, and foundations. Findlay builds bridges and ecosystems to generate deep connections and opportunities across silos.

CONTACT

+1 347 256 2861

everard@everardfindlay.com

www.everardfindlay.com

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Council for the Environment of New York City, GrowNYC

Communications Chair Appointed by New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg in 2009 and reappointed by Mayor Bill de Blasio and Mayor Eric Adams. Recently created the campaign and tagline “For the Love of New York”

Princeton University Advisory Council member, Department of Astrophysical Sciences The Advisory Council, founded in 194, is a group of roughly a dozen individuals who help guide the department in its scientific and educational mission, and help advance astrophysics globally.

Sherwood Design Engineers Advisory Board Member | Global Systems

Strategist Generating and guiding large-scale urban planning and infrastructure projects on several continents currently in the United States, the Middle East, and the Caribbean

The Durst Organization Programming Consultant Durst holdings include One World Trade Center and One Bryant Park

Museum of the Courageous Founding Trustee, Vice President

This organization documents and tells stories of people taking a stand to stop hate crimes and acts of hate nationally. Museum launched through a Times Square Billboard campaign.

Planetary Self Founder, CEO Planetary Self unites the individual with collective planetary action through connection choreography and AR Data Visualization.

Cornell University CCE Nassau Strategic Partner Redesigning 140 acres of under-utilized land in Riverhead as a living, learning lab in which derelict camp cabins are rebuilt to become examples of what is possible in regenerative architecture.

Government of Trinidad and Tobago Global Diaspora Business Advocate

The Global Business Advocates work to secure the sustainable growth and global positioning of Trinidad and Tobago through strategic connections. Currently working with Trinidad Govt., Sherwood Engineering and Berkeley University Engineering Faculty and students on a resiliency plan for the Port of Spain region

Speaker: See Change, TU Delft, Cranbrook University, Soho House, Neue House

Everard Findlay LLC, EIME CORP, Founder, President

SOHO House Tenured Board Member, Programming partner

Neue House Original Steering Committee member, Programming partner

CLIENTS INCLUDE

PRESS

